

TRAVEL TIPS

HELLO THE POLICE!

In some countries such as Mexico, tourists are a target for unscrupulous police looking for a tip.

A patrol along a road may ask you to stop and claim that you have committed a speeding ticket (even if it has no way to prove it).

Do not pay anything above on site. Say you believe you meet the rules. He insists that you must pay (Una multa - a ticket), say that you are ready to go to the police station to settle everything. The officer should then let you go.

One last tip : Stay calm at all times!
