TRAVELING DURING ALL SEASONS

Where to go... in January and February

Where is the sun

The beginning of the year is the perfect time to enjoy the islands composing the Caribbean: Martinique, Guadeloupe, Cuba, Santo Domingo, Jamaica but. The area enjoys warm currents and sunshine is at its maximum in Florida. Good idea to warm during the long winter months in France.

The dry season in Southeast Asia

To avoid the torrential rains of the monsoon, it is a good time to visit Burma, Cambodia, Thailand and also India. If it is cold in Ladakh (in the extreme north of the subcontinent) the rest of the country is nice.

Walk in the Southern Hemisphere

Once passed the Equator, the seasons are reversed, so this is the time to visit South Australia (Perth, Melbourne and Sydney city). Chile, southern Brazil and the northern tip of Argentina are pleasant at this time of the year

Areas to avoid

The continental Asia (Russia, Ukraine, Northern China ...) should be avoided because the temperatures drop below freezing point at this time of the year. The Southern Coast of the Mediterranean (Algeria, Morocco) risk to be a little sad and gray.

Where to go in March and April

TRAVEL TIPS

In March and April, it is still chilly in Europe. For those who enjoy the beach and swimming and who prefer sightseeing, it's time to head to cities like Florence, Rome, Prague or Granada. You'll avoid the crowds of major museums and streets.

Where can you swim and sunbathe?

For those who have an urge for sun the South of India, Goa beaches and those of Sri Lanka offer the best of what they have. Attention, expect still high temperatures. Although a bit far, Asia is also a good continent to discover the paradise of Maldives and Philippines.

Fell like a bit of discovery

In this case, the heart of South America welcomes you: Peru and its Incas but also Bolivia and Salar. The months of March and April are "the" time to visit the city of Rio de Janeiro, Brazil. Africa: go West, finally: Senegal, Guinea

And as always

It is still time to enjoy the Caribbean and the west Indies in particular, but also South Australia and Chile.

Areas to avoid

Réunion Island, Papua and New Guinea should be avoided. More generally, the Atlantic Coast (Spain, Morocco) may be somewhat austere at this time of the year.

Where to go in May and June

TRAVEL TIPS

Before the summer sun

Summer is not far away, but you do not want to wait. It is possible to find the sun in French Polynesia. On the Reunion Island, the climate is pleasant, the sea is warm: it is time to go in the direction of "the intense island".

Discovery and cultural tours

It is also the beginning of the summer season in the Mediterranean: Croatia, Montenegro, on the island of Cyprus or even Spain (Madrid, for example) ... This is a good time to visit and avoid the crowds and summer heat waves. Attention, the water may be a bit cold for swimming.

Same thing with Morocco, Egypt or further East Turkey, May and June will save you the hot weather.

And Asia?

Some areas enjoyable Bali and Malaysia in particular.

Areas to avoid

Saudi Arabia and Oman, as well as Kenya and India, where the rainy season begins. Avoid to visit Burkina Faso, Hong Kong, Mali and the Philippines.

Where to go in July and August

TRAVEL TIPS

It's the holidays!

July and August are the ideal months to visit Europe. For those who want at all costs the weather will take refuge on the shores of the Mediterranean: Spain, Greece, Cyprus and Malta.

This is also the time to go to the islands like Madeira Atlantic Coast, Cape Verde and the Canary Islands. But also in the countries of North Africa: Algeria, Egypt, Morocco and Tunisia.

Do not overlook the north of Europe, Finland and the Baltic countries are particularly pleasant and close to France.

And to go farther?

You still want to leave for the end of the world: in this case the Bahamas, Bermuda, Fidji and Réunion Island, will fill your desires.

In Tanzania, it is the beginning of the dry season and therefore the start of safaris.

Areas to avoid

And yes, summer is not good everywhere. It's better you avoid Saudi Arabia, New Zealand, New Caledonia, Peru, the Philippines, Sri Lanka and India (especially the south, where it is the monsoon).

TRAVEL TIPS

Where to go in September and October

Indian summer in Europe

The off-season is a time for a nice vacation. Attractions have ceased their operations, and it's more fun visiting. The Mediterranean waters are still warm and swimming is possible. Greece, Spain, Italy as well as destinations to North Africa (Egypt, Tunisia, Morocco) are particularly pleasant in September and October.

And how about a touch of exoticism?

In Brazil and around the city of Salvador de Bahia. At this time of year, you can also visit the French Guiana.

In Africa, the west coast is exposed: it is the best time to visit Madagascar and Réunion Island.

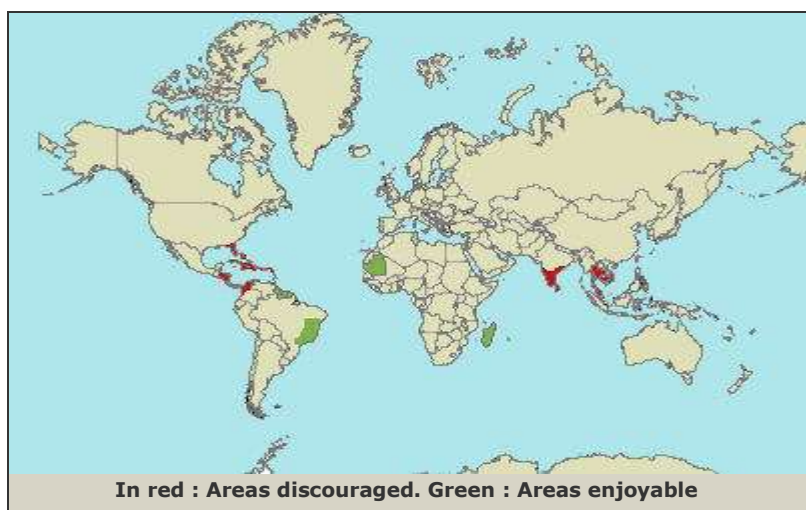

Want to visit desert?

Mauritania and then towards the south of Morocco you escape the high temperatures of summer.

Areas to avoid

Priority in the Caribbean (Martinique, Guadeloupe, Dominican Republic) and Southeast Asia (Cambodia, Vietnam, Laos) These parts of the world suffer at this time of the year of terrible storms strong winds and abundant rainfalls. Caution!

Where to go in November and December

TRAVEL TIPS

Holiday season in the sun

This is again the beginning of the good time to go to the Caribbean (Cuba, Dominican Republic, Jamaica) in November and December it is also the best time to go and discover Mexico.

You will also get the sun in the Southern Hemisphere, where spring is installed: Southern Australia is ideal.

And how about Asia?

Good season begins for South-East Asia, although in general the first few months of the year are conducive to the discovery of Thailand, the end of the year is ideal for Cambodia, Vietnam or Laos .

The monsoon ends in India; it is the ideal time to bask on the beaches of Goa.

Areas to avoid

If the Indian summer lends itself to the discovery of Europe and the Mediterranean, travelers may be disappointed by these locations they visit during winter. The weather is dull and gray, sometimes frigid temperatures ...

Avoid also the areas far north of Russia in particular.
